Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to apply for the ICT Specialist position. With over 15 years of experience in IT infrastructure, web development, and data analytics, I have built strong expertise in designing and managing scalable technology systems that support organizational growth.

In my role as Infrastructure Director at Nib International Bank, I manage enterprise IT systems and technology infrastructure while leading modernization initiatives that improve reliability, security, and operational efficiency.

In addition to my corporate role, I work as a freelance web developer and data analyst where I design web applications, e-commerce systems, and data dashboards for businesses.

I would welcome the opportunity to contribute my experience and technical leadership to your organization.

Sincerely,

Hailu Girma Bizani
